

87% of Americans agree:
it's important to have a strong,
sustainable Medicaid program
in the US

The Modern Medicaid Alliance spoke to thousands of Americans across the country to hear their thoughts on the Medicaid program. What we found might surprise you.

72% of Americans have a favorable view of Medicaid. That's an 8 percentage point increase from just two years ago.

Fewer than 20% of Americans support cutting Medicaid funding.

High majorities of residents in key swing states have a favorable view of Medicaid, including:

Some states may consider Medicaid expansion at the ballot box in 2020. Residents of those states overwhelmingly say it's important to have a strong, sustainable Medicaid program, including:

87% in Mississippi

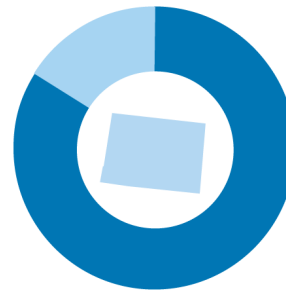

87% in Missouri

83% in Oklahoma

84% in South Dakota

84% in Wyoming

For more, check out our Medicaid Dashboard, our first-in-class resource for in-depth state-by-state Medicaid program information and voter views at: data.modernmedicaid.org